Mystery Babylon and the Gates of Hell

By Orlando Mostert
Kingdomvision.co.za

Jesus said "I will build my church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it."

If you knew where Jesus was standing when He said this it would give you a whole new revelation of the mystery of Babylon and the war of the saints.

Let's explore that mystery.

There is a place in the Golan Heights in Israel that has a sign pointing to "HELL". Below is a picture of this tourist attraction. In Jesus day it was known as "The gates of hell" by the Jews or the Grotto of Pan by the Greeks and Romans. It is important for the Kingdom Church to understand what happened here, what Jesus said and did here and what Satan did here...very important!

The phrase "the gates of hell" is a favourite rhetorical flourish by preachers. Mostly they have no idea what it means but it sounds impressive. Jesus said "I will build my church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it!" One tends to get the impression of huge say iron gates and behind them flames of fire and the church crashing through to hell?! Actually Jesus was standing here at "the gates of hell" with his disciples when He made this declaration and so they knew what He was talking about and it is time we the Church understood what He was talking about.

To understand what is going on here we need to understand where this took place, what happened here in history and what was said and done here. (For background read Mathew 16 and 17 and Luke 9):

- The location of the "gates of hell" was at the base of Mt. Hermon in the Golan Heights, Northern Israel and at the base of the mountain in Jesus day was the city of Caesarea Philippi.
- In past history of Israel this was Dan the place where Jeroboam erected a golden calf worship centre to stop Israel from worshipping in Jerusalem.

The "Gates of Hell" today in the Golan Heights

This is how it looked when Jesus and His disciples visited the site.

- It was on this Mt. Hermon that the fallen angels of Genesis 6 and 1 Enoch 6 descended in human form and inter-married with the daughters of men.
  - Its location is therefore sacred to all occult societies being on the 33 degree latitude and 33 longitude (from the Paris meridian) and why 33 degrees is important to the Masonic orders.

- One of the leaders of the fallen angels was called Azazel (meaning "goat") but the Greeks called him Pan and was depicted as half man and half goat. In Revelations he is referred to as Abaddon (meaning "destroyer"), in Isaiah in the KJV he is referred to as "Lucifer" but Jesus called him "Satan".

- As a recognized place of high occult power, a shrine to the god Pan (Azazel, or Satan) was built here with a temple that led into a cave in the mountain. It was a place to seek help and power from the priests of satan. The Romans called it the Grotto of Pan, the Jews called it "the gates of hell".

- It was here that Jesus took His disciples and for the first time revealed to them that He was the Messiah, the Son of God and that He would die and be resurrected.

- Then He told them He would build His Church and "the gates of hell would not prevail against it".

- And then He took Peter, James and John up the mountain to go and pray and there Jesus was transformed before them into His glorified body with Moses and Elijah communing with Him and God declaring, "This is my beloved Son..."

Now let me explain to you what is going on here...

The "hell" that is being referred to here is not the flames of fire. There are three words used for hell in the Bible: "sheol", "hades" and "gehenna". The first two refer to the place of spirits or the spirit world. Gehenna refers to a burning rubbish dump outside of Jerusalem. Revelations 20 tells us that "death and hell were cast into the lake of fire." So when you see a picture in your mind of flames of fire that is not technically "hell"...that is the "lake of fire" into which hell is cast one day.

So when Jews and Romans were going to the Grotto of Pan they were going to a gateway to the spirit world where they could get help from the demonic spirits that resided there. Today in popular literature it is also called a "Stargate". An opening into the "quantum field", a means to manipulate time and space, access to the hidden powers that govern the universe and from which time, matter and space are made.

Throughout all human history from the fall in Eden, to the building of the Tower of Babel, to the construction of the Pyramids and Sphinx, to the alchemists and hermeticists, all the way through to today's occult societies and on to and including all the top spy agencies of the super powers, the military establishments, the major corporations and major religious movements....all want access to the powers of the heavens. And to do that you need to build a gateway to hades....for which you need the help of the 'gatekeepers', Azazel and his companion fallen angles and demons.

The builders of the Tower of Babel were after this super power. And this is what God said of them, if they are able to do this "then nothing that they can imagine can be withheld from them" (Gen 11:6 )...and it was not a tower to reach up high into the sky...it was a "stargate", a gate to access the powers of "hades" so that they can do the impossible.

If you can reach into this realm incredible powers are available there. It is a timeless realm where the past and the future stretch out like a universal internet that you can access the past and the future. You can access time cycles to know if it is time for war or how to obtain wealth and treasure (the alchemist dream of turning lead to gold). And then there was the ultimate longing...how to be one of the gods and live forever!

And that is why people went to temples and shrines in those days. That is why they sacrificed to occult powers. And don't think this is just myths of the ancients...there is a difference between myth and mystery. These are mysteries and powers that today are being explored and exploited by top corporations, spy agencies and even churches.

Upon This Rock...

This famous declaration by Jesus is misinterpreted by both Catholics and evangelicals. When you see where Jesus was standing and what He was pointing to you will understand why...and what the mission of the Church is!

In Matthew 16:13-20 we have that well known interchange between Jesus and Peter:

"Peter, who do men say that I am?"

"Peter answered him and said, You are the Christ the Son of the living God."

And Jesus commends him saying, "Blessed are you Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter and on this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

This passage is a point of great contention between Catholics and evangelicals. For Catholics this rock" is Peter as the first Pope and true apostolic succession and authority therefore passes down from Peter through all the lines of Popes.

For evangelicals this is unacceptable. For them it is the confession of Peter as to the Lordship of Jesus that is "the rock" upon which the Church is to be built.

They are both wrong! The key to understanding what Jesus was saying and implying is to be found in the location where they were standing. Let me explain: If we look at this passage of scripture both in Matthew 16 and Luke 9 we find that Jesus and His disciples had journeyed north and were now in Caesarea Philippi. Immediately after this interlude between Jesus and Peter we find that He takes Peter, James and John "up a high mountain" where the entire great drama of the transfiguration takes place.

Jesus and the disciples were in Caesarea Philippi at the base of Mount Hermon. Mark 9:2 says, "And after six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them..."

When Jesus said "upon this rock I will build my Church..." He was pointing to Mount Hermon! Mount Hermon is the place where the book of Enoch describes where the rebellious angels came down to mingle with mankind.

This was a declaration of war! Jesus was making direct reference to Micah 4:1-2

"But in the last days it shall come to pass that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. And many nations shall come and say, Come and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord...and He shall teach us His ways.."

And when the sons of men had multiplied, in those days, beautiful and comely daughters were born to them. And the Watchers, sons of heaven, saw them and desired them. And they said to one another, 'Come, let us choose for ourselves wives from the daughters of men, and let us beget for ourselves children.'

...And they descended onto the peak of Mount Hermon...

1 Enoch 6:1-7:1

And that is why Jesus points to Mt. Hermon and its many shrines that were entryways to hell and dismissively calls it a "rock" and says I will build right on top of it and crush it and the gates of hell in it will not stop me in my purpose to crush it and bring deliverance to the nations of the world.

That is why we have this wonderful picture in Rev.21-22 of the New Jerusalem with its many gates from which flow living waters for the healing of the nations.

Where the fallen angels and demonic hordes were in greatest concentration on earth Jesus triumphantly ascends that mountain and displays His power and glory to His disciples. And upon coming down from the mountain the first thing He does is cast out demons. (Luke 9:42) So much so that, "all the people were amazed at the mighty power of God." ( Luke 9:43)

Here is the next critical information you need to know:These "gates of hell" are found everywhere.

Mystery Babylon...Gateway of the Gods

Now that you know what Jesus meant by the "gates of hell" I will give you the next important revelation the Church needs to destroy the "gates of hell". The identity of "Mystery Babylon"

We need to understand what "Mystery Babylon" really means if we are to wage spiritual warfare...and thereby recognize the signs in the world of where Babylon has established its kingdom.

Anyone who has ever read the Bible with an interest in prophecy has read commentaries on Rev.17...the great harlot who filled the earth with sorceries and fornication and had on her head written "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."

This is a fascinating topic actually. All sorts of speculations about who the harlot is and what does Babylon stand for. But scripture warns us that we need to tread carefully ...there lies a deep mystery here. Prov. 25:2 tells us that "it is the glory of God to hide a matter but the glory of kings to search it out." So allow me to give you an interesting clue to unlock this mystery of iniquity and lets see where it leads us.

To unlock the mystery of "Babylon" you need to understand the real meaning of the name "Babylon"....which will give us great insight as to what is going on in Babylon both in ancient times as well as Babylon today.

The problem about the name is the confusion in most Bible commentaries about the origin and meaning of the name. They assume that the name is derived from Nimrod's Tower of Babel. And that word "Babel" comes from a Hebrew root "Balal" meaning "to mix up" as in the confusion of tongues. And so when you read any Bible dictionary or prophecy commentary this idea is carried over in their interpretation of the meaning of "Babylon"...."confusion".

This however is incorrect and it hides the real mystery in "MYSTERY BABYLON". I only recently discovered the real meaning of the word from two books by secular authors writing on the history of Babylon that I bought some years ago...and it was an amazing eye opener to me as it will be to you and I was able to very quickly see the real signs of "Mystery Babylon" in some very suspect places...such as Hollywood!

The two books for your reference are Anton Gill's "The Rise and Fall of Babylon: Gateway of the Gods" and Paul Kriwaczek's book "Babylon: Mesopotamia and the Birth of Civilizations.". Both say the same thing about the meaning of the name but let me quote from Kriwaczek's book page 167...

" The name (Babylon) derives from a Greek version of the Akkadian version....Bab-Ilu, meaning "The Gate of God".

Now here is a very important point you must understand....In the world today there are people seeking power and influence and access to secret knowledge who willingly go through the gates of hell that have been opened so they can access occult power to further their careers or obtain great money power or political power or religious power.

I am going to only give you three examples but there are many more. Keep in mind that just as we are required to witness for Christ in this world so the demonic gods people call upon require sacrifice, public acknowledgment through signs and worship.

My three examples are:

- Hollywood and the world of entertainment.
- Psychedelic drugs and the opening of the "Third Eye".
- Joseph Smith and the world of religious cults.

There are many more but these examples will give you an idea how Babylon and the gates of hell operate.

There are also gates or openings to Psychic realms for occult power access on Wall Street and the realms of international finance.

There are gates of hell in the political world where politicians will accept the offer of power that Jesus rejected from Satan.

Hollywood and Babylon's Gate

When the gates of heaven open and the Lord God moves on the earth you will see signs and wonders. When a gate of Babylon opens up you will see signs and wonders.

Ancient Babylon had a very famous gate called the Ishtar Gate where the royal processions went through. The German archaeologists of the 19th century did great excavation work to unearth the marvels of ancient Babylon and actually dismantled this wondrous gate and set it up in Germany.

And Hollywood copied it for the most important event of their year: The Annual Academy Awards.

You know the famous "red carpet" that all the stars walk on before entering the auditorium? Each one decked out in their finest, camera's flashing, crowds clapping and praising. What you don't see is where they must pass through. Let me give you a photo of the red carpet walk of the stars...they must pass through Babylon's Ishtar gate before they can have the adulation of the crowds lining the red carpet.

And when they win the highly coveted "Oscar" they are universally acclaimed as Hollywood "stars" and "idols". Here is Oscar and his Babylon idol predecessor. On the left is a statue of the ancient god Ptah, the god of "craftsmen" (as in Hollywood actors always talking about their "craft") and on the right a statue of Osiris which in Egyptian was called "Ausur"...and why the current idol is called "Oscar".

This is nothing more than a resurrection of ancient idolatry ("Hollywood Idols"). Hollywood and its "entertainment" industry has been one of the most powerful means for spreading the enchantment of wickedness in all its forms.

Babylon held captive Daniel, Ezekiel and their friends. They were offered the enchantments and luxuries of Babylon....all they had to do was bow and worship Babylon's gods. They refused and were thrown in the fire and to the lions. Bu they prevailed and through their spiritual warfare they opened the gates of Heaven and manifested the Lord Jesus to the astonished lords of Babylon, such that all Babylon had to acknowledge the Lord God of Israel.

In such a time we have now entered. This is no time to be enchanted and seduced by the gods of Babylon. It is time for spiritual warfare to close these gates of Babylon and open the gates of Zion and manifest the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ on earth!

On this rock, this "Hollywood Hills" the Lord is calling some of His saints to go and establish His Kingdom in the entertainment industry and win souls there and recapture this exciting medium for telling the great stories of our exciting "Star Wars", our great battles against evil, our redemptive stories of love and forgiveness.

And pray the Lord sends deliverers to rescue the many young people coming out of the church as singers and talented actors who have sold their souls to Satan for momentary fame and fortune.

Joseph Smith and Religious Deception

One of the favourite ways for opening a Babylon gate to the occult world is by ceremonial magic. Ceremonial magic and occult rituals are often used by those who wish to open new "gates of hell" to access hidden powers. Joseph Smith went hunting for gold treasure using his occult powers as a medium....and found a new path to riches...religious power. Many religious leaders of all ages have gone this route to gain power and followers. And it is very prevalent here in Africa even in our churches where there is huge competition among preachers who must produce the miraculous to gain followers.

The Occult Origins of Mormonism

For those interested in a more complete historical narrative from which I am taking this information I can highly recommend Peter Levenda's book, "The Angel and the Sorcerer: The Remarkable Story of the Occult Origins of Mormonism." The background to the origins of Mormonism is fascinating but I will give a brief description to illustrate how gates of hell are opened.

We read in Deut. 18:10-11 where God forbids the Israelites to dabble in occultism, "There shall not be one found among you...who uses divination, or who deals with omens and augury, or a sorcerer employing incantations or one who has in him a divining spirit or an observer of signs or questioning the dead." Joseph Smith, the founder of Mormonism did just about all the above! The reason the Lord forbade those practices are because they open the gates of hell that allow demonic entities entry into this world to wreak havoc.

But why do people go seeking to open these gates? Simple. Its an old deception of satan. "You shall not die, you will be like God"; to others it is the promise of power, "see all these kingdoms, worship me and I will give them to you", to others it is the alchemist dream of turning lead to gold or to Jesus turning stones to bread, or today the keys to untold wealth by turning paper into money and thereby acquiring untold wealth; for others it is the desire to enquire of the dead to find out their destiny or secrets or knowledge of the future.

There is always a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow (which disappears when you find it) or a dragon guarding the treasure that needs a great sacrifice for his great riches. And in the end it is your integrity, your morality that must be sacrificed (usually through unspeakable acts of debauchery or cruelty) and ultimately the sacrifice of innocent life as in child pornography, paedophilia or even child sacrifice.

There were several major influences in the young Joseph Smith growing up in rural New York State in the early 1800's. His family was poor and there were tales of buried treasure by Captain Kidd in the region. From the age of 12 the young Joseph was already using a divining rod to go out into the woods for seeking this buried treasure. The other great influence was his family history as a descendant of Samuel Smith a participant in the Salem Witch Trials. The young Joseph from an early age was known to have a gift for finding things with his diving rod and later progressed to his "shew-stone" a stone talisman that he put in a hat and then put his face in the hat to see 'visions'.

The other major influence of the time was a great religious fervour of the era of the second great awakening in the New England area. But with it came a lot of deception. One of the greatest deceptions was a book by Francis Barrett "The Magus" that appeared in 1801 which was the first generally available guide to ceremonial magic and the Kabbalah. It gave lengthy descriptions on how to conjure up spirits and cast spells and how to obtain riches by this means. Joseph Smith saw a vision in his hat that told him of gold plates buried in a cave on the Hill Cumorah. To find this gold he had to perform a rite of ceremonial magic on the fall equinox of 22 September. The magic rites consisted of drawing a ring of power in the ground and then making the proper incantations. A spirit duly appeared called Moroni who revealed to him the place of the golden plates.

But where the original search by Joseph was for gold to make him rich, the spirit told him these plates were to be interpreted and the message written down...and thus came about the book of Mormon and the way to riches and power...start your own religion. Today the Mormon church is one of the richest financial entities in the world as well as powerfully connected to world of political power with prominent politicians like Mitt Romney and many other senators and congressmen being Mormons. In addition the American FBI and CIA are heavily staffed by Mormons.

Joseph Smith through his spirit guide soon developed the religion into a very attractive magnet for others who are seekers after the usual attractions of women, money, power and immortality. Smith promised it all. His great innovations were the revelation that God and Jesus were also once just men like us but that they ascended to be gods now ruling over us and if Mormon men went through the various temple secret ceremonies of initiation into which in essence are occult rituals, they too will one day become like gods, having their own worlds to rule over populated by their wives, children and descendents...hence the need for as many wives as possible. The spirit that he conjured up, Moroni was supposedly a dead prophet whose father was called Mormon, and thus the "Book of Mormon".

A young Joseph Smith used a divining rod, a "shewstone" for visions and conjured the spirits.

Smith soon incorporated all the Masonic initiation rites into his religion with each man having to go through to at least Master Mason and from there on, their own distinct rites to higher levels of occult power. He formed an army with his followers and ran for President of the United States as he considered America to be the gathering place of the lost tribes of Israel. What became particularly important for Joseph Smith and in fact for all occult practitioners is the position or place where the strongest occult powers or entry gates to the heavenlies can be opened. The key places are along what are known as "ley-lines" and what is key here is to find the centre of a territory that you want to control...and there set up a "gateway" into the heavens.

For the ancient occult societies the centre point of all the earth's landmasses was the Giza plateau which is why the Great Pyramid and Sphinx were built there...as gateways to the gods. For Joseph Smith and his Mormons the great centre point of America where the spirit Moroni told them the New Jerusalem was to be built was...Missouri. And the centre city in Missouri is Springfield, MO. The US state of Missouri was and is critical to Mormons for the coming of the New Jerusalem. But they caused so much trouble in Missouri that the state kicked them out and they had to move to Utah, the wilderness then. But they still long for this unfulfilled prophecy.

But the Lord had other plans....

In the centre of America and in Springfield Missouri is the headquarters of the world's largest Pentecostal church denomination...the Assemblies of God. Around the world, 66 million members and still growing. Where Satan wanted to plant the headquarters of this occult organization so that they could open a "gateway" over America, the Lord positioned one of the strongest divisions of His Church to close that gate and open rather the windows of blessing over America and the world. From there thousands of preachers were trained and thousands of missionaries were sent out to the world to preach the true gospel and baptize the people of the nations and bring them the power of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit

Upon that "rock" Jesus built His Church!

We need to be very careful here. We cannot be judging others without looking deep into our own Charismatic movement. Joseph Smith like many folks was born with a psychic gift. He used it to start a church. I worry about how many people in our Charismatic church who are declared "prophets" are using a born trait for personal profit. Balaam in scripture was born with a "psychic" ability. He used it for making money giving prophecies to rulers. Watch out when "prophets" are linked to "profits"!

Opening the Inner Gate: DMT, Drugs and the Third Eye

There is another gate to hell that has been opened from time immemorial. It is called the "third eye". The best way to open this gate of illumination to the spirit world is through hallucinogen drugs like "magic mushrooms" DMT, LSD, psilocybin etc. Priests use it, shamans use it, Wall Street traders use it....and all occult groups use it for contact with the spirit world.

Here is a revelation...the real problem about Sodom and Gomorrah, why the Lord had to destroy them was not homosexuality, that certainly contributed to their downfall. It was because they were the centre for drug trade at that time. I will give you the scriptures to support this.

The world is awash in recreational drugs that lead to heavier addictions. People are having "out of body" experiences in order to commune with spirit guides. This is extremely dangerous. It is happening in entertainment, politics and the world of finance. And it is rife among our youth!

The traditional interpretation of the sin of Sodom is homosexuality hence the term "sodomite". But this is not the real issue. Homosexuality has always been around in all cultures but not as pervasive as the gays would have everyone believe and it has always elicited disgust in all societies at all times. Which is why the Bible describes it as an abomination.

Let me give you some Biblical clues as to what was really going on in Sodom and why the great judgment from the Lord...and why it has great importance for us today as a reason for the great judgment on the earth.

In Deut: 32:31-33:

"For their rock is not our rock, even our enemies themselves being judges. For their vine is the vine of Sodom and the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter, their wine is the poison of dragons and the cruel venom of asps."

The word "gall" here is the Hebrew word "rosh" meaning head which is the term for the poppy plant from which opium is produced. In scripture opium is referred to as "wormwood". So we can now understand a number of biblical allusions to this:

- Prov. 5:14 "bitter as wormwood" (opium has a bitter taste)
- Lam. 3:15 "drunken with wormwood"
- Math 27:34 Jesus was given vinegar mixed with "gall" to drink, or opium mixed with vinegar to dull the pain of the crucifixion but he spat it out.

So what we have here is the fact that throughout the ancient times Sodom and Gomorrah were known as the drug dealing capitals of the middle east. Situated on the main trade routes between east and west they were known as the places where you trade for opium. Narcotics was not only needed for pain relief but was an integral part of temple and false god rituals. Narcotics and hallucinogens were needed as means for putting people into trance states to commune with spirits and demons.

But when nations and peoples give themselves over to narcotics then the destruction of that nation is soon to come. This is not only the lesson from Sodom but this is what the prophet Jeremiah told the people of Judah before their nation was given over to Babylon by the Lord to be destroyed. They were a nation of drug slaves...

In Jer. 8:11 the prophet accuses the false prophets of preaching "peace, peace" when destruction was coming their way. The people were in a false drug induced peace. Jer.8:14 says "Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves and let us enter into the defenced cities and let us be silent there for the Lord has given us....the waters of gall to drink..." Jer. 9:15 "Therefore thus saith the Lord of Hosts...Behold I will feed them even this people with wormwood and give them water of gall to drink".

Jeremiah was trying to tell the people of Judah that the end was coming and the Babylonians were going to destroy their nation and take them into slavery because of their sin, but what did the people do...they said lets go and hide behind our walls, lets get high, this will all just blow over. The priests said "Don't worry be happy!" (like that old Raggae pot smoking song) And then proceeded to deal more drugs to the masses to dull the pain and keep the deception going a bit longer... destruction and enslavement soon came.

Here is the lesson from Sodom as well as from Jeremiah and Jerusalem: Before the Lord destroys a nation that nation is caught up in wormwood and gall...opium and narcotics. They live in delusion of false peace and false euphoria.

This warning is repeated in Revelations 18:23. Babylon the Great is condemned by God and the people warned by the Lord to get out of the world system as it is falling. One main reason...."for thy merchants were the great men of the earth, for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived"

The word "sorcery" here in the Greek is "pharmakos" from which we get pharmaceuticals. The international drug trade is one of the largest businesses in the world and it is literally destroying nations and people. It reaches deep into the international banking system, it funds secret societies, local gangs, politics, spy agencies.

Opening the Third Eye: The Eye of Horus

This "gate to hell" has been very commonly used since ancient times and is used even today by intelligence agencies and major corporations. In Deut. 18 it is called the spirit of divination. This has been used throughout history by people wanting information that this is not obtainable by ordinary means.

The spirit realm not only contains powers, it also contains structure and information. Think of it as a universal internet system. And since that realm is timeless it contains information not only of the past but the future. A true prophet of God can access that realm through a genuine anointing of the Holy Spirit. Which is why Saul went to Samuel the prophet of Israel to find out where did his donkeys go. And more importantly the secret military intelligence that the prophet Elisha gives to the king of Israel about the movements and plans of the king of Syria (2 Ki.6).

Those who are not called by the Lord to be anointed prophets are forbidden to access those realms. But throughout history the lure of secret knowledge has proven to be irresistible to those in power. And throughout history they have approached those who have the ability to open these gates to the universal spirit internet. But that gate was not some grotto in mountain or a circle in the ground...it was within the shaman who was able to travel outside of his body into those realms...for which help was needed to accomplish this feat. And what is significant was that throughout history those capable of these psychic feats were usually found in the temples of the world cultures...which brings us to the Vatican and its famous pine cones.

What is the Vatican doing with a giant pine cone in its courtyard and why does the Pope carry one on his staff? The same reason the ancient Greeks carried it on their "staff of Dionysius" it signifies the importance of a small little gland in the middle of the brain called the "pineal gland" and which looks like a pine cone.

This is the gland that produces DMT and connects the soul and spirit world to the body.

The ancient Egyptians also revered this little gland and called it the "Eye of Horus" or also known among Tibetan monks and other mystics as "the Third Eye". And that by the way is also why the "eye" is on the top of the Illuminate pyramid on the US dollar bill...it is the "Eye of Horus", the gateway to "Hades", the gate that needs to be opened to see into the spirit realm. And the key to that is that little gland called the "pineal gland".

The "Eye of Horus" A symbol for those who have been 'Illuminated'.

DMT and the Third Eye

So how do you open "the third eye" to the spirit realm and what does that have to do with the pineal gland?

My research into this topic (which actually needs book length treatment) was greatly helped by a book called "DMT: The Spirit Molecule" written by Dr. Rick Strassman MD, and Clinical Associate professor of Psychiatry at the University of New Mexico School of Medicine. This from his book: "From 1990 to 1995 Dr. Strassman conducted DEA approved clinical research at the University of New Mexico School of Medicine in which he injected sixty volunteers with DMT (dimethyltryptamine) one of the most powerful psychedelics known...DMT a plant derived chemical that is also manufactured by the human brain (the pineal gland) consistently produced near-death and mystical experiences. Many volunteers reported convincing encounters with intelligent nonhuman presences, especially "aliens." Strassman's research connects DMT with the pineal gland...and makes the bold case that DMT naturally released by the pineal gland facilitates the soul's movement in and out of the human body..."

So what we have heard is a mechanism in the human brain whereby a certain drug release will set the soul free to roam outside the body and gain access to other spirits and knowledge out in the psychic realm. What Dr. Strassman's patients discovered was what all soul travellers through the ages have discovered...when your soul roams outside the body you immediately attract other spirits out there, "aliens" or what we know as demons and what the Bible describes as "familiar spirits". Think of it this way. If you are going to navigate the universal internet you need a web "browser" to help guide you through the incredible confusion out there. And sure enough there come the "friendly guides" usually in what is known as "familiar spirits" or spirits in a form that look familiar to you...either supposed relatives or friendly old sages or even animal guides.

To release DMT naturally in the body to produce a psychic experience monks and other shaman's have used various techniques such as extreme meditation, or chanting, or dancing rituals to induce a trance. More direct and quick action can be achieved through the use of drugs. Which by the way was what was going on in Sodom and Gomorrah, they were centres of drug trade of the whole middle east temple cultures that needed to induce soul travel.

The Pineal Gland and the "Eye of Horus"

This is still happening today at the top level of all major intelligence agencies and corporate and banking operations. They want to know what the future holds and they want to know what the opposition is doing. Those who have this in-house capability usually will reveal in their advertising or logos that they are in on the top level of power access. It is a warning to competitors as well as an invitation to make use of their services which go far beyond normal advertised services...for those in the know. And when you learn to recognize the signs of those who have opened the "gates of hell" for their organization, you will be amazed at who and how many at the top are involved with this. People who open this gate to the spirit realm are in extreme danger of demon possession.

The gods of Egypt are still active today

Since the dawn of civilization, the symbol of the eye and the sun (aka the “eye in the sky”) are associated with divinity. In Ancient Egypt, the symbols of the Wadjet, the Eye of Horus and the Eye of Ra are all associated with the solar god.

The ancient god Ra is still around and he demands to be acknowledged by his acolytes. He promises them wealth and power but they must be his witnesses in the world...they must “worship” him by public signs of their allegiance.

Katy Perry used to be a gospel singer but has acknowledged that she sold her soul

If you want to make it in Hollywood or fashion or music...you better get “Illuminated” and then show it!

When you start to open your spiritual eyes you can begin to see the “signs of the times”.

Who is enslaved by who, who is serving who?

On the left is the ancient coin of Tyre the king of Tyre being described by Ezekiel 28 as the Satan and the city his seat of power. His symbol on his coin was the snake coiled with the twin pillars of Thoth.

A very modern symbol today everywhere.
